Art 101

When I was 34 years old and the mother of three children, I took Art 101 at Motlow State Community College in Tennessee. One day our instructor announced that the project we had done on the first day of class was to be included in the notebook that would be a major part of our grade. “May I do another project?” I asked somewhat anxiously. “I just don’t have the first one anymore.” The instructor asked what happened to it. Somewhat embarrassed, I replied, “It’s on my mother’s fridge.”

Remember to take your children's artwork home. They have worked hard and enjoy showing you what they made! Don't know where to find it? Ask your child's teacher. We do keep some of their work to save in their portfolios!
